

Acehnese of Indonesia

The Acehnese people live on the northern tip of Sumatra. Most are farmers or fishermen. Houses stand on stilts with the space underneath used for animal shelter or storage. The women manage their households and rear the children who are expected to share the family work. Both men and women wear colorful sarongs. Women also wear head coverings to comply with Islamic law. Men wear ornate swords in ceremonial dress.

Prayer Points:

- Pray for God's intervention and comfort for all who suffer because of the Tsunami. Ask Him to bring adequate help for immediate relief and future community development.
- Ask God to use the present situation to open this area to the Gospel.
- Pray that the Lord will strengthen, encourage and protect believers who live among the Ache people and enable them to share the Good News.
- Ask the Lord to provide qualified linguists, willing to work amidst hostility, to translate Scripture into Acehnese.
- Pray that hostility toward Christians will cease so that they may freely witness.
