Descendants of the Malay race, most Balinese live on the South Pacific island of Bali. Mostly farmers, the Balinese plant rice as their main crop. Tourism and handcrafts round out their economy. The people of Bali have a rich culture, centered around the Hindu religion. Each neighborhood has a communal shrine. They are known for their unique religious festivals and folk drama and have a deep passion for music, poetry and dancing. They live in villages where each family resides in a separate walled compound.

Prayer Points:

- Ask God to strengthen, encourage and protect the believers in Bali.
- Ask the Lord to soften the hearts of the Balinese people, so they will receive the Gospel when it is presented to them.
- Pray that the Balinese believers will have opportunities to share the Gospel with their own people.
- Take authority over the spiritual principalities and powers that are keeping the Balinese people bound.
- Ask God to raise up prayer teams to begin breaking up the soil through intercession.
- Pray that strong local churches will be raised up among the Balinese people.
