

The Kazak of Mongolia

The Kazak make up the largest non-Mongolian ethnic group in Mongolia. Most relocated during the Russian Civil War in the 1920, but are beginning to migrate back to their homeland of Kazakstan. Very nomadic, they primary live in portable tents called yurts. The Kazaks are very loyal to their Islamic and animist traditions. Very few known believers live among them

At a Glance:

Population (in 2000)	118,100
Religion	Muslim
Persons who have never heard the Gospel	72,700 (68%)
Christians	<1%
Language	Kazaki
Scriptures in their own language	New Testament
Jesus film in their own language	Available

Prayer Points:

- Pray that God will send Christian missionaries to work among and minister to the Kazak people in Mongolia.
- Pray against the spirits of Islam and animish that are keepign the Kazak people bound and unaccepting of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Ask God to raise up prayer warriors to intercede for their deliverance.
- Ask God to encourage and protect the miniscule number of Kazak believers. Pray that they will become a bold witness among their tribes in Western Mongolia.
- Pray for one female believer who recently attended an AIMS training in Mongolia. Within six months, she has already planted a church and is reaching out to other tribes in her region. Pray for her safety and that through her, many will come to know a saving relationship with Jesus Christ.
