

Monthly Prayer Focus:

Kummari of India

A small people group of only 11,000, the Kummari people are spread over three states of India, but the majority live in the Indian state of Orissa. They speak only one language - Telugu. Most scholars estimate that 100% of the Kummari population follows Hinduism, and few, if any, believe or adhere to the Christian faith, making the Kummari a “least-reached” group of people.

At a Glance:

Population	11,000
Religion	Hinduism
Christians (Evangelicals)	None
Christian adherents	None
Language	Telugu
Scriptures in their language	None
Least Reached	Yes

Prayer Points:

- Take authority over the spiritual forces of Satan that keep the Kummari people bound and unable to respond to the Gospel.
- Ask God to raise up prayer warriors to intercede for the salvation of the Kummari.
- Pray that the Lord will give the Kummari people wisdom to know that the religion they are following will not lead them to the true God and that He will give them a hunger in their hearts to seek Him.
- Ask God to raise up people to live among them and be witnesses for Jesus Christ.
- Pray that the Holy Spirit will draw the Kummari to accept Jesus as their Savior.
- Ask the Lord raise up enough believers to establish churches in their midst.
