

The Tuareg of Niger

The Tuareg primarily live in the West African countries of Niger, Algeria and Mali. Most Tuareg are nomadic shepherds and farmers, moving their herds and portable living tents with the changing seasons. Unlike most Muslim tribes, the Tuareg men wear the veils instead of the women. Their practice of Islam is also blended with tribal superstitions and magic.

At a Glance:

Population (in 2000)	200,200
Religion	Muslim
Persons who have never heard the Gospel	137,300
Christians	<1%
Language	Tayrt
Scriptures in their own language	New Testament
Jesus film in their own language	None

Prayer Points:

- Pray for the few mission agencies already working among the Tuareg. Ask God to guide them and multiply their efforts to bear fruit for the Kingdom of God.
- Pray that the Jesus film and other Christian broadcasts will be produced in the Tayrt language to reach these unreached tribes.
- Pray that God will reveal Himself through dreams, visions and various miracles among the Tuareg in West Africa. Ask God to empower the few Tuareg believers to take the Gospel to their lost neighbors and family. Pray that Tuareg leaders will come to know Christ and lead their villages to the Lord.
- Ask God to raise up local churches and believers in Niger and other West African countries to send missionaries to the Tuareg tribes.
